Advocacy Education Leadership

The WVBankers "West Virginia Young Banker of the Year" award, an important recognition, is a platform to help cultivate the next generation of bankers. It honors one young banker who has excelled in learning, leadership, and service.

I am pleased to inform you that the "West Virginia Young Banker of the Year Award" nominations are now open. Nominations will be accepted through Thursday, May 23, 2024. The recipient, who will be selected by the WVBankers' Board of Directors, will be recognized and honored at our 2024 Annual Meeting and Convention at The Greenbrier on Monday, July 29, 2024. The recipient and nominees will be announced on Friday, May 31, 2024.

If you have a rising banker within your organization who demonstrates the desire, capacity, and initiative to contribute significantly to your bank's success, send us a nomination on the form below!

All previous WV Young Banker of the Year Award nominees are eligible for this year's award. We will highlight the significant milestones of previous nominations to emphasize the next generation of bankers showcasing their professionalism, commitment, and determination. To ensure we have the updated nominee information, sponsors must contact Allison Boyd to reinstate the nomination. You may update or add to the original submission we have on file.
